The ATHANGUDI STORY

A Timeless Craft. A Living Heritage.

Born in Athangudi, a close-knit village in Sivaganga district, these tiles are a creation rooted in Chettinad legacy.

Handmade using age-old techniques, Athangudi tiles reflect the spirit of South Indian craftsmanship — a timeless union of nature's raw beauty, skill, and artistry.

Each tile carries a legacy of craftsmanship, designed to span the test of time & be loved, for generations.

The Maker's Process

Draw

Hand-drawn patterns bring each design to life.

Cast

Natural pigments are carefully poured into moulds.

Cure

Cement sets slowly, gaining strength and endurance.

Polish

Tiles are polished to perfection, revealing their natural glow.

Pack

Individually packed with care for safe and secure delivery.

Why Tri-Lotus

- Curated collection of authentic Athangudi tiles that celebrate heritage and timeless beauty.
- Design guidance and material expertise to help you create with confidence.
- End-to-end project support for architects and clients — from selection to delivery.

SOLAH SHRINGAAR

Sixteen Adornments, Reimagined in Athangudi Tile

- In the great mansions of Chettinad, beauty was never expressed through a single gesture. It unfolded in layers: carved thresholds, flowering courtyards, patterned floors, burnished brass, deep verandas and rooms alive with colour.
- THE ATHANGUDI PALACE COLLECTION draws from Solah Shringaar, the poetic idea of sixteen adornments. Here, the adornments are not worn. They are composed into the architecture.
- Twelve field designs and four border systems move through heritage florals, measured geometry, monochrome restraint and symbolic courtyard forms. Each has its own character, yet all belong to one considered visual language.
- Pigment, cement and the touch of the maker lend every tile its quiet individuality. Colourways may be coordinated for suitable projects, with bespoke colour development explored on request, subject to feasibility.
- Together, the sixteen systems invite rooms to be dressed with pattern, framed with ornament and shaped into spaces of enduring presence.

TECHNICAL GUIDE

Installation, care and project notes.

Athangudi cement tiles are handmade using time-honoured methods. With mindful installation and gentle care, they bring enduring beauty and authenticity to every space.

1. HANDMADE NATURE

Slight variation in colour, tone and surface is part of the character of handmade Athangudi cement tiles.

2. INSTALLATION

Install on a suitably prepared substrate with an experienced tile professional familiar with handmade cement tiles.

3. SEALING

Sealing should be considered according to the site, finish and end use.

4. CARE

Use gentle routine care and avoid harsh abrasive or acidic cleaning methods.

5. PROJECT PLANNING

Allow suitable project coverage and finalise border and corner coordination early.

6. SUITABILITY

Suitability depends on application, setting and professional judgement.
